imantic, Danielson and Putnam

WILLIMANTIC

"hat Is Going On Tonight. Plotures at the Gem, Bijou

KEN WHILE VISITING.

y of Albion, R. I., Died Satat St. Joseph's Hospital.

itoy, aged 76, of Albion, R. cly Saturday morning at Sf. nospital of Bright's disease, stricken with an attack while all with a relative in this city onles ago and was at that time to the hospital for treatment, survive two brothers, Michael, west, Oliver, of this city; a siscr. Miss Jennie Roy of Albion, R. I. The body was taken to the home of Alfred Berirand, 238 Main street, to funeral services that will be Unemployed Strikers Going to Easthampton to Work.

Relief is said to be in sight for those operatives of No. 2 and No. 4 mills of the local plant of the American Thread company who are out of work at present because of the action they took in the recent so-called strike in the company's manufacturing plant and partly because of alleged depres-sion in the cotton business.

one of the men who was laid off a week before last has been out looking up likely places for the operatives out of work at the local mills. He out of work at the local mills. He himself secured employment at his line of work as a speeder tender at the West Boylston Mfg. Co., East-nampton. Mass. At this plant, which is a large one, work is brisk and help is wanted. The man was deputized to return to Willimantic and hire, sixty hands to work as lappers, speeders and spinners for the same purpose there. A meeting was held in lower Main street hall Saturday evening of the unemployed and more than a sufficient number were signed up to go to work in Easthampton, Mass. The man who came here to hire the hands claims that the work is paid for by the piece and as a result larger wages carned,

Band Has Supper. The Natchaug brass band of North

ROLLER SKATING -AT-

VALLEY STREET ARMORY very Tuesday and Saturday Afternoon and Evening. Special attention paid to beginners

E. H. SPRING, Piano Tuner w 185-4 Willimantic, Coun.

Auto Truck Moving LONG DISTANCE WORK

A SPECIALTY Address: P. A. WEEKS, or 'Phone 850-2, 338-12 or 254-5. Willimantic Ct.

DR. F. C. JACKSON Dentist. Painless Extracting and Filling a Specialty 152 Main Street, - - Willimantic

JAY M. SHEPARD succeeding ELMORE & SHEPARD Funeral Director and Embalmer 60-62 North St., Willimantic Tel. Connection Lady Assistant

HIRAM N. FENN UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER 61 Church St., Willimantic, Ct. Telephone

a fire variety of Fresh Fish; and Ops. Oysters and Clams. at ton Ashley (Bertha), Mrs. Edward L. Tryon: Miss Freda Dixon, Mrs. Charles W. Tryon; Miss Evelyn Evans; Windham with their friends enjoyed a journalist, Miss Margery Erick; a fine oyster supper in the village hall Saturday evening. After supper dancing was the attraction until midnight.

Storm Put Lighting Plant out of Business.

A little after 4.30 o'clock Sunday the sky became overcast, the heavens grew black as real night, the wind rose quickly, and a severe rainstorm that assumed the form of a genuine thunderstorm, broke, By 5 o'clock it was lishtening frequently and thundering considerably. To make matters worse, the lighting system of the city went bad and the city was plunged into absolute darkness for upwards of half an hour. The Williamantic gas and electric light company endeavored to transfer their street and commer-A little after 4.38 o'clock Sunday the to transfer their street and commer cial lighting circuits to another ma-chine, but as, fast as the juice was turned on fuses would blow out and it was after 5.30 before the mem in charge of the plant could get things by working order again and furnish

FUNERAL.

Ernest H. Willis.

The funeral of Ernest H. Willis, who the funeral of Ernest H. Willis, was died Thursday night at Liberty Hill, was held Saturday afternoon at one c'clock from his home. Rev. A. J. Fark of Leonard Bridge was the officiating clergy man. The bearers were John Clarke, Clifford King, Wallace Palmer and Horace Sweet. Burial was in Willimantic cemetery.

The services held in the Woman's lub rooms Sunday under the auspices of the First Spiritualist society were well attended. Wellman C. Whitney of Spiringfield, Mass, was the speaker and message bearer. C. Howard Mil-lerd sang two solos, accompanied by Miss Maybelle Taft.

Mayor Dunn Marches in Rain. New Haven, Nov. 24.—Nearly seven thousand members of the Holy Name society from New Haven county paaded in a pouring rain this afternoon were reviewed in front of the city hall by Governor Baldwin, Mayor Rice and Rt. Rev. John J. Nilan, bishop of Hartford, and afterward attended St. Francis' church, where Bishop Nilan preached a special sermon, Comptrol-ler-elect Daniel P. Duna of Williman-tic was among the marchers,

COLCHESTER FATHER ARRESTED William Brown Must Pay $2 a Week Toward Children's Support or Go

William Brown of Colchester was rrested there Friday afternoon by fficer Allen McArthur of this city on warrant charging him with the non-upport of his three children, William, years old, Kenneth R., 4, and Charles . I year old. He was brought to this ty and Saturday morning appeared fore Deputy Judge James A. Shea.

Prosecuting Attorney E. Frank Bug-bee stated to the court that Brown's wife had secured a divorce from him but the children were unable to care for themselves and were living with their mother who was unable to give them what they needed. He said that Brown was arrested last July under the same charge and ordered to pay

$2 a week for the support of the children for three months.

The last payment was made the latter part of September and since then Brown had contributed nothing towards the support of the children. They had been sick and had to have the services of physicians. The children were in need of shoes and other things.

Brown said that he was perfectly willing to do the best he could for his children. He was sentenced to three months in the county jail, but execution of judgment was suspended six months and he was ordered to pay $2 a week towards the support of his children during that time.

Engineer on New Haven Road. Everett Williams of 52 Windham freet is now a full fledged engineer n the New York, New Haven & Hart-ord railroad. On Friday he took his taminations and passed satisfactorily. For a number of years Mr. Williams had been a fireman for the New Haven system. He had been running for some time between East Hartford and Poughteepsie, N. Y. He will now be given a run as a regular engineer. Mr. Williams is a son of W. L. Will-lams of this city. At one time the young man was employed by City En-sineer Hobert E, Mitchell, but gave up that work to take up railroading. Mr. Williams will continue to make his home in this city his home in this city.

Whist and Comedy.

The Willimantic Woman's club at the first of their series of matinee whists plans a society comedy in one act entitled The Kleptomaniac, with the following cast: Mrs. John Bur-ton (Peggy), Mrs. Helen Boss Cum-mings; Mrs. Valerie Chase Armsby, a young widow, Mrs. George S. Elliott; Mrs. John Bur Mrs. Charles Dover, Mabel, a bride, Miss Caroline M. Colgrove; Mrs. Pres-

OBITUARY. George D. Payten.

George D. Payton, 79, died at his home, 286 Summit street, Friday eve-ning, of heart disease. He had been ill but a short time. Mr. Payton had been a resident of Willimantic many years and at one time was employed at the local thread plant. There survive a widow, Mary A. Payton, and seven children, Jane A. Elizabeth C. Agnes E., all of this city, James of Middletown, John of Pawtucket, R. I. George and Joseph C. Payton of this Contract for Grading and Walks. The properties and repairs committee of the town school committee, comprising C. C. Case, Thomas J. Kelley and George S. Elliott, have swarded the contract for the grading and the laying of concrete walks about the Windham high school building to Contract Charles Larrages Jr. The tractor Charles Larrabee, Jr. The contract price is $925. Mr. Larrabee already has a force of men at work on the job and will push it forward with all possible despatch, Attended Saturday's Game. Attended Saturday's Game.

Among those to attend the Harvard-Yale football game from this city were Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hillhouse, James Hillhouse, John L. Leonard, Jr., Miss Marion Jordan, Haroid Taylor and Miss Ruth Taylor, Raymond A. Parker, Kenneth Hillhouse, Miss Elson Barnes, Miss Katrina Ingham and Miss Dorothy Upjohn, the last three being guests of Miss Taylor, Judge William A. Arnoid and Roblor, Judge William A. Arnold and Rob-

Local Notes. A. L. French of Church street was a Hartford visitor Sunday. C. C. Helmold of North street left Saturday on a short business trip to

John Haran of Bank street left Saturday afternoon for a visit with Putnam friends. Conductor R. B. Myers of the Judd Brook work train attended the wedding of a friend in Turnerville, Satur-

Town Clerk Frank P. Fenton, Austin D. Boss, Mitchel Laramie and Senator-elect Merritt Welch enjoyed the day bunting about Chaplin Saturday. Thomas Ashton of Fairview street left Saturday afternoon for Newbury-port, Mass., to attend the funeral of Martin Wilkison, a G. A. R., comrade, today (Monday). John R. McCarthy, representing the Plumbers and Steamfitters' local and Myron S. Herendeen of the Painters' local were the Willimantic delegates to the State Structural Trades alliance held in Waterbury Sunday.

Personals. Ernest P. Chesbro was in Hartford on business Saturday. Judge Fred A. Sackett of Andover was a Willimantic visitor Saturday. Mrs. William A. Taylor of Church street was a Hartford visitor Sunday. State Policeman Theodore F. Downing of Hartford was in Willimantic for brief stay Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ladd of Lewiston avenue spent Saturday with friends in Glastonbury. Bert Olin was among those from this city to go to New Haven Saturday to witness Yale's defeat. Clifford H. Brown, James J. Daley and Thomas Joyce were guests of New London friends Saturday.

Harold S. Williams was among those from this city to attend the Harvard-Yale football game at New Haven Saturday. Miss Grace L. Powell of Prospect street entertained her cousin, Miss Grace Robertson of South Manchester, for the week end. Miss Florence and Master Theodore Baker of Bellevue street were guests of their brother, J. Fred Baker, at the Harvard-Yale football game Saturday

STAFFORD SPRINGS

Funerals, Miss Bliss, Mrs. Maria H. Lull-Clerks Maintain Lead in Candlepin League.

The funeral of Miss Kate Grant Bliss, 63, took place at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. R. Brown, on East Main street, Sunday afternoon, at 1.30. Rev. P. V. Norwood officiated at the funeral. Burial was in Ellington. Mrs. Maria H. Lull.

The body of Mrs. Maria H. Lull was brought here Saturday morning from Montpeller, Vt., for burial. The funeral services were held in the Congregational church at 10.30. Burial was in West Stafford cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stevenson of Manchester were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Pero on Saturday.

Clerks Still Lead. The Clerks still lead the Stafford Candlepin league at the end of the sixth week, with the Crescents and Merchants tied for second position. Bolicau of the Warrens, who bowled his first game last week, leads the list of individual averages, with an average of 94.

The Standing. Won. Lost. P.C. ...... 12

.667 .611 .611 .556 .444 .389 .389 Rhode Islands ... Total Pinfall. Merchants 7775; Manufacturers 7702; Clerks 7670; Independents 7659; Crescents 7602; Johnsons 7601; War-rens 7414; Rhode Islands 7381.

High Team Total. Manufacturers 1357. High Team String. Mullins 308.

High Single String. H. Pinney 122. Bolicau 94, Snow 92, Melbourne 92, Pinney 92, Mullins 91, M. Turchman 90, Yare 89, Tufts 89, C. Pinney 89, A. Lee 89. Average of Leaders.

Lee 89. Games This Week. Monday-Manufacturers vs. Rhode Tuesday—Warrens vs. Člerks. Wednesday—Mechanics vs. Indepen Friday-Johnsons vs. Crescents.

Somewhat Deficient. Joseph M. Dixon proved his energy during the campaign, but he does not qualify as a prophet.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Not a Sob. Brother. Incidentally, Colonel Boosevelt is not the sort of a man who sobs himself to sleep over temporary reverse.—Kansas Nitrogenous matter will grow bone and muscle, keep the blood in a healthy condition and produce both feathers and eggs.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA DANIELSON

Union Thanksgiving Service to Be Held at Congregational Church— Talk of New Freight Station— Connecticut Mills Plant Running Day and Night.

Mrs. Frederick E. Colvin, who has been at a private hospital near Willi-mantic for the past three weeks, has returned to her home in Danielson, much improved in health.

Willis J. Bartlett, formerly in busi-ness at East's Killingly, is visiting friends in town.

friends in town. George Foote of Southbridge visited relatives in Danielson Saturday.

Mrs. John Winslow has returned from a stay at Jefferson, Mass.

Miss Fiske of the Rhode Island deaconesses's home gave an address at the Methodist church Sunday evening.

Seriously III. Mrs. Bertha Shippee is seriously ill at the home of her mother on Mechan-Miss Minnie Farron of Boston is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Farron. Rev. W. D. Swaffield to Preach. Rev. W. D. Swaffield will give the ermon at the union Thanksgiving service to be held under the auspices of the Congregational, Baptist and Methodist churches at the Congregational church Thursday morning.

Hunters made the most of Saturday the last day of the open season for hunting game birds. Fairly good shooting has been enjoyed this fall. Eurton E. Leavitt, who died in Put-nam last week, was well known to the people of this place, where nearly all of his operas has been presented. Thanksgiving quotations will be giv-en at the meeting of the Ladies Read-ing Circle to be held with Mrs. P. H.

ing Circle to be held with Mrs. P. H. Sprague this (Monday) afternoon. The Danielson members of the organization are working hard for the success of Putnam lodge of Elks' charity ball, the entire proceeds from which sister, Margaret. The young woman are to be devoted to Christian chari- who was employed in the Hammond Danielson men who have not missed many Yale-Harvard football games were seen about town Saturday, at home on account of the great difficulty in getting tickets this year.

Social and Dance. There was a pleasant party in Phoenix hall Saturday evening for the so-cial and dance given by Hiram Eur-

$600 From State Fund. Six hundred dollars was the amount given from the republican party's state fund for use in the 28th senatorial dis-

Basketball Five.

Sidney Marland, William Marland, ferbert Barnett, Charles Myers and Richard Healey will make up a bask-ethall team that will play a game with a New London team in the town hall Thanksgiving night.

New Trolley Freight Station. It is said that a new freight station is to be erected near the railroad freight station, the proposed structure being intended for the handling of the trolley freight business. Such a build-ing will relieve some congestion that occurs at the present trolley freight are out of town will leave here Wednesday evening to spend the Thanks-

Good Pictures at Orpheum .

The plant of the Connecticut Mills his lantern. company at Industrial place continues On his way to run day and night, keeping two sets ticed a large piece of white paper un-of employes busily engaged in turn-der the barn, and, going there, found ing out automobile tire duck, for which everything in readiness for setting the nights, as is intended, state aid at the rate of $2,25 per pupil can be obtained. More than thirty applications from Killingly people who wish to attend the school have been received, not children, but thosee who really are anxious for an opportunity to study.

Return from Wedding Journey. Mr. and Mrs. William J. Brennan, who were married at West Thompson last week, have come to Danielson, where they are to make their home, living in a newly furnished cottage on High street. The bride received many beautiful gifts from their relatives and friends in various places in eastern Connecticut.

His Memory Kept Green Souvenir W. H. Taylor, formerly of Putnam, has not found much time to visit his friends in these parts of late, but he is not foregetful of them. Sat-prday he malled quantities of Thanksgiving cards to this section, where he will always retain a host of friends. Rev. Father Preston Recovering. Rev. Thomas J. Preston, pastor at Thompsonville and formerly of Dan-ielson, is recovering from a serious illness in his native city of New Haven. MISS CHOLLAR'S TEA In Honor of Guests from Roxbury and Hartford.

At her home on Broad street Saturday afternoon Miss Marion D. Chollar gave a tea in honor of Mrs. Elizabeth Matthews Richardson of Roxbury, Mass., formerly of Danielson, and Mae Stevens of Hartford. There were about 30 guests. Mrs. Timothy E. Hopkins poured, assisted by Mrs. W. I. Builard, Mrs. Nathan D. Prince and Miss Louise Danielson.

Addressed D. A. R. Chapter. At the recent meeting of Sarah Williams Danielson chapter, D. A. R., the members were entertained by a talk on the subject, Rambles Around Boston, given by Mrs. Elizabeth Matthews Richardson. The hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. Frank T. Preston, Mrs. Henry J. Thayer, Putnam, Mrs. Frank Bennett, Mrs. Earl Young, Miss Grace Bacon and Mrs. Charissa Pike. Charissa Pike, tiful design.

The following were present: The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Burbank, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. William Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Crumley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Bill, Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Barnett, Mrs. Helen Dowe, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bullock, Centerville, R. I. Miss Emma Burbank and Miss Marie Barrett.

Mr. Bailey will conclude his labors Saturday night of this week as outside superintendent for the Quinebaug company. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey will dozen solid silver tesspoons of beau-company. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey will leave about the first of the month for Wallingford, where the former is to engage in business with his son.

PUTNAM

New Evidences of Firebug-Attempt Made to Burn Stables of A. H. Reynolds-Odd Fellows Return Bridgeport Lodge Visit-Theatrical Benefit for Burned-Out Families.

About thirty members of Israel Putnam lodge of Odd Fellows return-ed here Sunday afternoon from a trip to Bridgeport, where they had been to Bridgeport, where they had been guests of a lodge of the order in that place. The local party left Saturday afternoon on the New York express to which a special car was attached for their convenience. for their convenience. The visit was made in return for one that the Bridgeport Odd Fellows made here a few months ago. Candidates were taken along to receive the degree in Bridgeport lodge, which has probably the finest degree team in Connecticut

FUNERAL.

Miss Julia Blake. Funeral services for Miss Julia Blake were held at St. Mary's church Saturday morning, Rev. Charles F. Bedard being celebrant of the high mass of requiem. The funeral was attended by many relatives and friends also by the members of the order of the Children of Mary. Minn Blake also leaves one & Knewlton silk full, had been ill about three months.

Site of Hampton Fire Inspected by Court.

At Willimantic today (Monday) there is to be a session of the superior court, but tomorrow the session will be held in this city and the case of Hammond against the New Haven road resumed. The jury sitting on the case, with Judge William L. Bennett presiding, and court officials, making a party of sixteen, have been at Hammon of the party of the purpose of maken ton. The Phoenix orchestra played for at Hampton for the purpose of mak-ing an inspection of the site of the fire in which the plaintiff's buildings were destroyed and out of which the

ATTEMPT TO BURN STABLES.

Paper Smeared With Grease Discovered Under Barn of Albert H. Reynolds. Saturday it became known that Putnam's firebug had attempted to destroy the big stables of Albert H. Reynolds during Friday night. Only the accidental discovery of the fixings for the fire prevented a repetition of the happening of the night before. Mr. Reynolds was not anxious to have the fact known that an attempt had been made to burn him out, but when it did become public he did not Mr. Reynolds said he was tired out Fans of the winter league enjoyed Friday night as the result of having the world's series baseful pictures been out all the previous night work-that were shown at the Orpheum theater Saturday evening in connection with the usual fine programme. to inspect a band saw that he was war veterans that hung in G. A. R. soing to sell, but wanted to be sure that it had on a balance wheel, a fea- ical value, as in it were likenesses of ture that he was uncertain about.

At that time everything was in nor-giving recess with relatives, but on account of the schools opening Monday others will not go away.

At that time everything was in account of the schools opening Monday to the house and soon after was in bed. At about 7.30 his son Mark went bed. At about 7.30 his son Mark went to the chicken coops, taking along to the house and soon after was in big picture was the gift of Major Wilbed. At shout 7.30 his son Mark went liam S. Beebe, late of Thompson, and out to the chicken coops, taking along was valuable in more ways than one his lantern. On his way back Mark Reynolds no-ing out automobile fire duck, for which there is a big demand and one that is constantly increasing.

Special Meeting to Decide Night School Matter.

The selectmen of Killingly have been possible over the inflammable materials used in the petitioned and have made arrangements for a special town meeting to be held Saturday of this week for the purpose of seeing if the town will vote an appropriation to meet the cost of maintaining night school for winter. If this school is kept in session for 75 nights, as is intended, state aid at the rate of $2,25 per pupil can be obtained. More than thirty applications from More than thirty applications from smeared with grease showed what smeared with grease for setting the place afire. The trick had been done within the hour. There was a little box in which smear day.

A union Thanksgiving service is to be held at the Congregational church of the preparations for burning the building and a sort of peach or bean basket, probably used by the firebug the preparations for burning the building and a sort of peach or bean basket, probably used by the firebug that the congregational church of the preparations for burning the building and a sort of peach or bean basket, probably used by the firebug that the congregational church of the preparations for burning the building and a sort of peach or bean basket, probably used by the firebug that the congregation to within the hour.

There was a little box in which smear with the box in which smear day.

A union Thanksgiving service i smeared with grease showed what trouble the firebug had gone to to make certain that his work would be The grease used is supposed to be an automobile variety and probably came into possession of the criminal from the big railroad wreck of last Saturday. Several tubs of this grease was in one of the cars wrecked. The ire was to have been set in a place where it was almost certain to cause great damage. great damage.

In talking about the case Mr. Reynolds made it perfectly clear what will happen to any firebug that he may catch operating about his premises. "I have a good breech loading abousun," he said, "and a revolver and other tools that I can use in defending other tools that I can use in defending my property, and I shall not hesitate one instant about using them."

Murphy to Open Athletic Club's Season Teddy Murphy of Boston, 105 pound champion of America, arrived here Saturday for the feature bout in which he is to be opposed to Tommy Flan-nigan of Boston at the opening ses-sion of the Putnam Social and Athletic ciub. Murphy is one of the classiest boxers of his weight in the country and both here and in England has made a reputation that insures the club members of a scientific treat to-night. He is a clean living little fellow who does not dirak livers smoke or who does not drink liquors, smoke or who does not drink induors, sinose or chew. The membership of the club before whom Murphy is to entertain has grown rapidly within the last few days and he will probably work before a large audience.

FOR BURNED-OUT FAMILIES. Manager George M. Fine Generously Gives Performance at Bradley The-

At the Bradley theater Sunday even-At the Bradley theater Sunday evening Manager George M. Fine conducted a benefit concert for the families made homeless in the big fire. No admission was charged, but all who entered were expected to make a contribution, which all did, many being very liberal. Manager Fine's thoughtfulness was fully appreciated by the public, as shown by the reSults obtained. Clearing Up After Big Fire.

FAREWELL GIFTS

For Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Bailey, Soon to Leave for Wallingford.

About thirty friends were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Bailey, who are soon to leave here, at their home on the West Side Saturday evening. The party was entertained at supper, after which various entertaining features were introduced, rounding out a pleasant evening.

During the course of the evening. Mrs. H. J. Burbank, on behalf of those present, presented Mr. Bailey a tendeliar gold piece and Mrs. Bailey a for sale, a pleasing feature, for coal is

Trolleys The Boston Store Business Center of Kerwich

That Comfortable Feeling

To shiver or not to shiver, that is the question: whether 'tis wiser in the bed to suffer the slings and arrows of outrageous winter, or to take up arms against this trouble and by buying a good Boston Store comfortable end them. In other words we have a wonderfully complete collection of these fine winter bed coverings. Even in the cheaper grades the patterns and colorings are most artistic, while all of them are made and filled in the most approved sanitary manner. Fresh air and warmth will give sound rest and health.

BOSTON STORE COMFORTABLES WILL GIVE YOU WARMTH WITHOUT WEIGHT-COMFORT WITHOUT EXCESSIVE COST.

COTTON FILLED COMFORTABLES - Nicely made and filled with clean, fleecy cotton. The covers are made of silkoline in dainty designs and colors with plain

$1.00, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.50, $3.00

WOOL FILLED COMFORTABLES-Wool is the ideal filling for winter bed coverings. It is light, absolutely clean, and the hygienic properties of wool are too well known to need comment. A good wool filled comfortable will prove a lasting delight.

WOOL FILLED with figured silkoline cover and plain border

$3.50, $4.50

WOOL FILLED with beautiful silk cover in charming $6.50, $10.50

ent time Fine Group Picture Burned. As is always the case in big fires some things are lost that can never be replaced. This is the case with the great group picture of nearly many men who have died since the photograph from which the was made was taken in 189

Miss Phoebe Beard was leader of the Y. P. S. C. E. meeting at the Congre-gational church Sunday evening. Mrs. Elizabeth Kone of Central Vil-

F. E. Burnette, about 75, died in Boston, Sunday morning. Mr. Bur-nette suffered a shock about two weeks ago and had since been in a critical condition.

Mr. Burnette was twice, principal of Mr. Burnette was twice principal of Putnam high school, being the second head of that institution, and remaining as such for a period of about seven or eight years.

His early home was in Dudley, Mass. and he studied at Nichols academy and Amherst college. Nearly all his life was given to teaching. He had been at the head of schools in Woodstock and in this city, leaving Putnam to at the head of schools in Woodstock and in this city, leaving Putnam to become superintendent of schools in a Texas city. He also taught at Lewiston, Me., and at Reeds Ferry, N. H., in the McGaw normal institute.

About 1893 he returned to Putnam to again become principal of the high school, remaining about four years. For a number of years past Mr. Burnette had been connected with a book publishing firm in Boston, but maintained his home here.

He leaves a widow, two sons, Dr. John E. Burnette of Brockton, and Clarence Arthur of Beverly, and one daughter, Mrs. F. E. Whitney of Germantown, Pa.

COLCHESTER

Hunters Return to New Haven-Yetta Wolf's Stock Appraised-Dance Fol lows Moving Pictures.

Clarence Hooker and party, who have been on a hunting trip in this vicinity, returned to New Haven Fri-S. H. Miner of East Haddam was calling on friends in town Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Wood left Friday evening for a few days' visit in Springfield, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Wood attended the football game between the Carlisle and Springfield Training school teams. Stock Appraised.

The appraisers on the stock of goods in Yetta Wolf's store on Main street met Friday to appraise the goods. The store has been closed several weeks as Wolf went into bankruptcy.

Joseph Johnson has resigned at the Wichwild mill and returned to his Joseph Johnson has resigned at the Fitchville mill and returned to his home here.

H. P. Buell was in New Haven Friday, attending the State Druggists' association meeting.

Thomas P. Kinney was calling on friends in Hartford Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boig and family left town Friday for their home in Providence. For the past few years.

Mr. Boig has been here during the summer, taking photos at the summer resorts and scenery.

William Saunders of Long Island City is visiting his sister, Mrs. John Higgins, on Myrtle avenue.

Many See Motion Pictures.

Many See Motion Pictures A large crowd attended the moving pictures and illustrated songs in Grange hall Saturday evening. A social dance was held after the show.

Mrs. F. J. Smith of Bridgepert is visiting her mother, Mrs. C. Shea, on ebanon avenue. Eugene Blau has moved his family to Haddam, where he has a contract hauling wood to the station there, to be used in brickyards.

The annual rubber output of the world is 90,000 tons, valued at $200,-

JEWETT CITY, CONN.

Special Sale of Women's Coats

More than 100 garments of Winter Coats and Suits for Ladies and Misses will be on sale at ONE-HALF the price of their actual values.

And Suits

We advise all the women of Jewett City and vicinity to call at our store during this sale and take advantage of the great bargains we are offering.

New York Dry Goods House

A. ZEGEER, Proprietor

Soule St., Jewett City, Conn.

We are agents for McCall Patterns and Publications.

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

Murray's Boston Store

WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

Sweeping Reductions

In Trimmed Millinery

THAT INCLUDE DRESS HATS, STREET HATS AND

CHILDREN'S HATS

This mark down of all our Hats means a saving of just half their regular prices. This is somewhat earlier than usual for such a reduction, but it represents a remarkable opportunity for saving. Perhaps the very hat you have been admiring is among the collection at just half its former price.

now reduced to $2.89 and $1.89.

duced to 69c, 98c and $1.39.

reduced to 48c. 69c and 98c.

Dress Hats that were $2.89, $3.89, $4.89 and $5.89 are

Street Hats that were $1.39, $1.89 and $2.89 are now re-

Children's Hats that were 98c, $1.39 and $1.89 are now